Aims and Scopes

International Journal of Mechanical and Aeronautical Engineering (IJMAE) reports on cutting-edge research in all branches of the practice and theory on Mechanical and Aeronautical Engineering. The aim is to publish research of high quality and of lasting significance on the materials and production. The scope is broad, from fundamental concepts in materials and production to the analysis of novel phenomena and applications. The approach can be experimental, computational or theoretical.

The journal is an archival peer-reviewed international journal publishing the following types of papers: 1) research papers, 2) reports on advanced case studies, 3) reports on major material and production projects, 4) literature review. IJMAE also encourages the exchange of ideas between chemists, physicists, material scientists, biomedical researchers, engineers and other researchers who are active at the frontiers of this diverse and multidisciplinary field.

Submission Instructions

Hard copy submissions are not acceptable. All submitted articles should be original unpublished paper with experimental or theoretical research result. Plagiarism is prohibited.

When submitting papers for potential publication in IJMAE, please submit an original editable file. All figures, images, tables, etc. should be embedded into the original file. Detailed instructions on preparing papers for submission can be found in the Template paper and Copyright Transfer Form. Each full paper should be submitted to ijmae@apisepress.com.

Paper Review

All published journal papers are referred by international competent researchers and scientists. Therefore, IJMAE adopts the double-blind review principle in peer review process.

- Papers are sent to reviewers for peer review process.
- The reviewers' recommendations determine whether a paper will be accepted / accepted subject to change/ subject to resubmission with significant changes / rejected.
- All papers are refereed, and the Editor-in-Chief reserves the right to refuse any typescript, whether on invitation or otherwise, and to make suggestions or modifications before publication.
